Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image/380058921

Downloaded on Sep 8, 2020

4 LOS ANGELES TIMES: MONDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1892.

Southern California Republicans, look well to the Harrison electoral ticket tomorrow! See to it that our State is kept securely in the Republican column !

THE TIMES-MIRROR COMPANY.
PUBLISHERS OF THE
Los Angeles Daily Times, the Sunday Times, and the Saturday Times and Weekly Mirror.
H. G. OTIS ..... President and General Manager
L. E. MORRIS ..... Vice-President. MARIAN OTIS ..... Secretary.
ALBERT MCFARLAND ..... Treasurer. C. C. ALLEN
Office: Times Building.
N. E. corner of First and Broadway. Telephone numbers, Editorial, 674; Business office, 28
Founded December 4, 1881.

The Los Angeles Times
OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

VOLUME XXII. ELEVENTH YEAR. NUMBER 155.

TERMS: By Mail, $8 a year; in carrier 65 cents a month, or 70 cents a week. Sunday Times, $2 a year. Weekly, $3.00 6 months. 75 cents.

Guaranteed Daily Circulation in October, 11,606 Copies,
Exceeding the combined circulation of all other Los Angeles daily papers.

Entered at the Los Angeles Postoffice as transmissible at second-class mail matter.

Liberty and Law!
Loyalty to American homes!
Protection to American industries!
Encouragement to American capital!
American commerce on American vessels!
A free ballot and a fair count!
Sovereignty and the Will of the People!

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.

For President ..... BENJ. HARRISON.
For Vice-President ..... WHITELAW REID

TOMORROW is the day we get there.

WATCH us "skin the cat"—the wild-cat.

TOMORROW the rocktack gets its back broke.

LOOK out! here comes Grover on his toboggan!

THE campaign liar can now take a day or two off.

CLEVE and Steve will know better next time.

NOW, Adlai, sober up and lead a different life.

TOMORROW is our day to do up copperhead Adlai.

Some of the foxes will prove tomorrow to be foxies.

TOMORROW is the day the timber hoodlum gets the talking.

TOMORROW the calamity howler can begin resting his voice.

LOOK out, Grover! or you will get hit with one of Ben's shots!

GROVER will know tomorrow night how it felt to the Dalton boys.

JUST wait until the American eagle gets his claw in that wildcat's eye!

GROVER may not look so pretty Wednesday, but he'll have more sense.

ADLAI will probably wind up the campaign with a few words at Dwight, Ill.

JUST for tomorrow only the rubber stamp is mightier than the stuffed club.

REPUBLICANS! go early to the polls! Let the other fellows do the procrastinating.

REPUBLICANS! you should be able to get out and do up the enemy before noon tomorrow! VOTE EARLY!

REPUBLICANS! get out and drag back that hatchet from Alameda county. We need it in our business.

DO not fail to get out tomorrow and take one last swipe at that Bourbon Dutch, Grover Cleveland.

IT is the easiest thing in the world to vote tomorrow without making a mess of it. Don't get rattled!

GET out early tomorrow and take a shot at Grover Cleveland's stool-pigeon, "Calamity Jim" Weaver.

TODAY Grover thinks the tiger of Tammany is his kitten—tomorrow the tiger will know that Grover is its meat.

GEHRLMEN, we have been saying it for several months, now you get out and make that rubber-stamp talk history.

WHERE now is the little bonnie
With which Grover started out?
It has gently gone a-thinning—
It has vanished up the spout!

NO novices the Democrats favor shinplaster money. They always need something for shins so badly the day after election.

THIS grave is dug, the slaughterhouse is reeking gore, and the last day on earth of Grover Cleveland as a politician will soon be o'er.

"EX PRESIDENT," the monumental liar, is out for the Stuffed Prophet. We are delighted to know that Ell had at last got there, for that is right where he belongs.

WITH a tiger cat menacing Grover on one side and an American eagle hold on the other, the poor saint with his halo all awry is looking wild-eyed. It is going to be a hard day on him tomorrow.

WHEN this cruel war is over,
Where, oh, where shall we find Grover?
Tomorrow night he may be seen
Floating in a big tureen.

WITH a big Republican protection lid on it, to keep the soup from getting cold, Poor Grover!

H. G. OTIS is the man you want to vote for tomorrow for the office of Coroner. He is a good square Republican and in all other ways worthy of your suffrage. Be sure to hit the rubber stamp a lick in the square alongside his name on the ticket.

ALL together now for a United States Senator who is one of our kind of people. Vote for Walter S. Moore, C. M. Simpson, Samuel N. Andrews, William H. Wright, James M. Meredith, C. W. Pendleton and Robert N. Bulla, the Republican nominees who are to go to the Senate and Assembly. Don't forget this!

Believe the Expulsion Sufferers!

We appeal for pecuniary help for the needy sufferers by the terrible explosion of last Friday night, and will see to it that all contributions are properly disbursed and fully accounted for. Send by mail or messenger, or leave your contributions—no matter what the amount—at the counting-room of THE TIMES.

THE POPULAR RELIEF FUND.

Contributions have been received as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| Previously reported | $1198 00 |
| Public school class | 4 75 |
| Total | $1202 75 |

Displaying the Returns.

THE TIMES will display the election returns by means of a stereopticon tomorrow evening, as in former elections. A Western Union wire will be run into the editorial rooms on the second floor, and a special operator will take dispatches on Tuesday night and every succeeding night until the final result is announced. Dispatches will be received by both telegraph lines. People who seek early information—and who will not?—will find it displayed on a screen in front of the Times Building. All returns and reports received, whether favorable or unfavorable to the Republican ticket, will be impartially and promptly given to the public, as heretofore.

Amendments and Propositions.

During the past few weeks THE TIMES has discussed in detail all the constitutional amendments and propositions to be voted upon at the election next Tuesday. These are important matters, and should not be overslaughed by the personal interest and national issues involved in the campaign. For the benefit of those who have followed the discussion and who wish to see at a glance how THE TIMES stands on these questions, we make the following brief recapitulation:

Constitutional Amendments.

Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 39.—Disposing legislative jurisdiction of Los Angeles county. ..... NO.
Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 7. (Limiting debts of counties, cities, towns, townships, boards of education and school districts, and providing for same, except by a two-thirds vote.) ..... YES.
Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 11. (Increasing duties and compensation of Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, Controller, Treasurer and Surveyor-General.) ..... YES.
Assembly Constitutional Amendment No. 5. (Amending duties of officer of the State may incur a deficiency in excess of the amount appropriated, nor approve any money to pay same if otherwise incurred.) ..... YES.
Senate Constitutional Amendment No. 14. (Manner in which cities may frame charters, and how many hundred inhabitants may frame and adopt charters.) ..... YES.

Propositions to Be Voted Upon.

For the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people. ..... YES.
For San Francisco Depot Act. ..... YES.
For an educational qualification requiring every voter to be able to read the Constitution and to write one section of the Constitution in the English language. ..... YES.
Behind the date. ..... NO.

A Conspiracy to Steal the County.

Certain Democrats, in their frenzied determination to carry this county in Tuesday's election, have resorted to the wholesale system of frauds in registrations, which, being fully declared, ought to turn away from their party thousands of honest voters. There is reason to believe that Democratic deputies in the registration office have admitted to the list, not only men who were not entitled to registration, but that they have in some instances forged documents to secure false entries. They are also suspected of destroying several hundred certificates of Republicans, who registered in a regular way, and whose names do not appear on the Great Register. By this device system—swelling the Democratic vote and suppressing the Republican vote—the conspirators no doubt expected to turn the scale in this county and throw it for the Democratic ticket. They will certainly fail. Their trick has been discovered in time so that it can be frustrated the whole length. The outcome will be that a lot of these manipulators will land in the penitentiary.

EVERY Republican voter should constitute himself a committee of one to see that no mistake is made in stamping and depositing his ballot. He can make any marks on your ticket with pencil or pen. Do not try to use the handle of the stamp for marking it. Put the X-mark of the rubber stamp in the space provided for it after each name or proposition that you wish to vote for. Do not erase anything from the ticket. If you spoil one ballot surrender it to the proper officer and get another. Make no mistake in the ballot you deposit.

THE time for discussion on the issues before the people in this election is about gone, and the time for action has arrived. We advise every Republican voter to go to the polls early and make sure that his ballot is deposited. Voting under the Australian system may be somewhat slow. Take no chances of being left out when the polls close.

THAT man is a great fool who does not vote to sustain his own interests and the prosperity of his State.

WHEN you come to the office of Auditor, vote for, neither a crank, nor a Communist, nor an Incompetent. Vote for Lopez, the Republican nominee.

VOTE for a continuance of prosperity in California. Vote to sustain the great industries of the State. Vote for protection. Vote the Republican ticket.

IF a man has a good business, which is yielding him a steady income, there is little sense in selling it, to purchase a shaky concern, merely for the sake of a change.

LOMAS PECKHAM, posing as the "friend of the laboring man," presents a spectacle that is enough to make an entire cannibals meet with food and long-continued laughter.]

THOSE who favor good, clean government in Los Angeles county, and the regulation of the liquor traffic, will make sure that they vote for a Republican Supervisor tomorrow.

LOS ANGELES is on the verge of another and more solid boom than that of five years ago. A change of administration, with its attendant uncertainty, would check many new enterprises and retard development for several years. Why should we take a leap in the dark when we are doing so well?

THERE are four classes of citizens who are likely to lose their votes tomorrow by defective ballots—the ignorant, the careless, the intoxicated and the fanatical Alecks who know so much already that they will not accept instruction. Let every Republican see that he is not caught in any one of these classes.

THE duty of every American patriot, old or young, is to deposit a ballot tomorrow for the maintenance of Republican principles. This way lies protection to American industries, general prosperity, high wages, sound money, a full and free franchise. Every citizen should vote to sustain his own rights.

REASONS of our forefathers! Is there any danger that the United States in 1892 will reverse the policy of protection inaugurated and sustained by Washington, Jefferson, Monroe, Jackson and Webster! And yet that is what the Democrats are trying to do. They say that protection is a Republican fraud and against the fundamental principles of the Constitution. Vote against that party.

THE Republican legislative candidates are:

XXXVIth Senate Dist.—Warren S. Moore
XXIXth Assembly Dist.—C. M. Simpson.
XXXth Assembly Dist.—Asa L. Kenyon
XXIIId Assembly Dist.—Wm. H. Wright.
XXXIst Assembly Dist.—James M. Meredith.
XXXIVth Assembly Dist.—C. W. Pendleton
XXXVth Assembly Dist.—Robert N. Bulla

When you fix the supporting sign of your cross X opposite the name of the candidate in your district, you will have voted to secure a Republican United States Senator.

PUBLICOLA Mr. Pickering of the San Francisco Call is a howler from away back when he gets on the inflammatory subject of "Mike" de Young. The ancient editorial gull-bag thinks he has discovered a loaded secret's out, and roars about certain correspondence which, so far as TIMES is concerned, might have been given to the public in the morning Cruel months and years ago. It was never a secret at any time, and has been published months ago.

WOOL, barley, beet sugar, raisins, prunes, nuts, olive oil, dried fruits, all enjoy a special advantage in American markets through the protective tariff. We of California could not hold our own with foreign producers if we did not enjoy this protection. Take away protection, and you cripple all of these industries. Cripple these industries, and where will the prosperity of California be? Think of this, gentlemen, when you deposit your ballots next Tuesday.

TAXES is no agricultural industry in California which has not promising a future as the sugar-beet industry. Under the beneficent influence of the 9 cent bounty, the China factory has proved a success, and preparations are now under way for the establishment of a factory at Anaheim, on the cooperative plan. There is room for a score of such factories in Southern California and the bounty continues to accrue to move this bounty, which will furnish profitable employment to thousands in Southern California, within a few years, if the Republican administration is indorsed.

THOMPSON H. WARD has been a tower of strength to the Republican county ticket in this campaign. He may not have devoted so much time to a personal canvass for votes as some of the other candidates, as the vast amount of extra work thrown upon the County Clerk by the new system of election laws has taken close up to the time the voters of the county will accept his election to duty as the best recommendation for their suffrages. Mr. Ward has been a most efficient, honorable and faithful County Clerk, fair and courteous to all who have had dealings with him, and he should be retained in office another year.

THE percentage of irregular ballots in Democratic and mixed county precincts, is likely to cut quite a figure in tomorrow's election. In the record-breaking election over two hundred votes were thrown out. In this case only one-quarter of election was voted on; in the election tomorrow there will be twice that number as many chances of error. It stands every voter in hand to be sober, deliberate and wide-awake when he prepares his ticket. The Australian system requires accurate work as to intelligence and temperance qualification. We venture that the percentage of votes lost by the Republicans will be much less than those lost by Democrats. It would be a matter of interest to know how the two parties do average up in this respect.

WARD the strong arm of the Government is extended to guarantee a free ballot and a fair count. It should be respected in the South as well as in the North. The rebel brigadiers must not be too deftly. The United States is a Nation with a big N, and the integrity of the ballot must be established.

SEARS clear of the wildcat money of those disastrous times which the Democrats would basically revive; and, more clear, also, of the preposterous 3 per cent. sub-treasury farmers' warehouse (financial) scheme of the rainbow-chasing Populists. They are all delusions and snares, and if you take up with them you will be deceived and likewise sucked in. ]

CLEVELAND poses as a friend of the laboring man. As Governor of New York he vetoed bills for a department of labor; for a mechanics' lien law; for 8-cent fares on the elevated roads; for a street car employes' ten-hour day; for the abolition of convict labor in prisons, and the child-labor bill. As President he killed, by pocket veto, the Arbitration Bill and the Anti-convict Labor Bill of 1886, which was afterward promptly signed by President Harrison.

AFTER fourteen years of a tariff "for revenue only," President Buchanan, in a message to Congress in 1859, reported the condition of the country in these terms: "With unsurpassed plenty in all the productions and all the elements of natural wealth, our manufactures have suspended, our public works are retarded, our private enterprises in different lines are abandoned, and thousands of useful laborers are thrown out of employment and reduced to want. We have possessed all the elements of material wealth in rich abundance, and yet, notwithstanding all these advantages, our country in its monetary interests is in a deplorable condition."

THE Oakland Times has taken a contract, apparently, to deny a promise at the head of Henry Bigelow, of the Examiner, "the solemn circle of the Church of Rome," or some other kind of a circle. It is persistently slaughtering the people who do not approve the sort of enterprise which has given Mr. Bigelow this fresh notoriety, in its own peculiarly tapping manner, and wearing a large line of space in commending the deed of closing unions Evans and Soaring to their lair and standing them up for sight or ten columns of "good stuff," in a very pretty line as it stands now. But the public will agree with us that however commendable Mr. Bigelow's enterprise in securing a scoop may be, the paper that sent him on so glorify a couple of cutthroats and thieves has not much to be proud of.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Tammany rubber-chasers after "four States of the West" are much sadder but not much wiser than they were a month ago.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

The Dry Goods Economist, good non-partisan authority, states that 10 pearl button factories have been started in the United States during the two years that the blessed McKinley tariff has been in force, as the most beneficial law for every citizen of this country that has ever been placed upon the statute books.

An American traveling in Europe writes to the New York Tribune that he has yet to encounter the first foreigner of any of American politics is mentioned, does not express a desire for the election of Cleveland, on the ground that the establishment of free trade would be a benefit to the world. As a matter about to injury to the United States.

A Democratic victory would mean worthless State money. Take the Southern States, where in the main the wealth is in the bank notes of States which have repudiated their debts, or in the form of railroad securities in a bankrupt condition, and intended to give them a chance to recoup themselves by palming off worthless notes.—Iowa State Register.

The other race claims now on file at Washington sum up upward of $700,000,000. Democracy and free trade would have been good times in certain quarters. Some people are so constituted that they never are filled only on a joke. But with a Democratic administration in power, backed by a Democratic Congress, the claims would be a serious joke.

"I am a good old office cat: a fighter—so they said. He bide was scarred, and made a scrach adorned its meanly head. "Good a fun," I said, "where are those marks of strife and tribulation?" He clawed the air and feebly mewed. "No sears upon dominion"—The Chicago Tribune's energy Campaign Club.

Figures in possession of the Republican National Committee show that beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Empire State will be Republican this year. At the same time it is only fair to say that the Democratic national Committee has in its possession other figures showing in a mathematical manner that the State of New York is a Democratic and dead sure cert.—Chicago Tribune.

Protection has proved a distributor of great sums of money; not an agency for amassing it in the hands of the few. The records of our savings banks and building associations show that the wealth of the country is distributed among the people to a greater extent than ever before. The wage-earner has come first and last in the men who earn their bread in the sweat of their brow. The magnificent and momentous result is that the United States is the best paid country in the world, educated, acquired and independence secured by so large a proportion of the total population as in the United States of America.—Thomas G. Shearman.

Poor Voter on Election Day.

The president now is the poor voter,
The highest not more high;
The lowest not more low;
Today alike are the great and small,
The nameless and the known;
My palace is the people's hall,
The ballot box my throne!

Who serves today upon the list,
Beside the serving man?
Alike the brown and wrinkled fist,
The gloved and dainty hand!
The rich is here to-day with poor,
The weak is strong to-day,
And sleekest broadcloth counts no more
Than homespun frock of gray.

Today let pomp and state and fortune
My stubborn right abide;
I set a plain man's meaning simple
Against the pedant's pride.
Today shall simple counsel try
The strength of gold and land;
The wide world has not wealth to buy
The power in my right hand.

While there's a grief to seek redress,
Or balance to adjust,
Where weighs our living manhood less
Than Mammon's vilest dust—
While there's a right to need my vote,
A wrong to sweep away,
Just so long shall my single grain
Outweigh a man today!

—John G. Whittier.

THE QUESTION OF WAGES.

Will "the Masses" Be "Even Anew"—The Record of Twenty Years.

[Chicago Tribune.]

The Tribune printed yesterday the following official statistics:

Let us take twenty cities at random and view their history for ten years. The cities are Providence, R. I., and Lowell, Mass., in New England manufacturing.

In Providence, R. I., from 1880 to 1890 in 1890, or 21.07 per cent.

In Augusta, Ga., from $207 in 1880 to $325 in 1890, or 21.72 per cent.

In San Francisco, Cal., from $338 in 1880 to $525 in 1890, or 23.98 per cent.

In Brooklyn, from $427 in 1880 to $670 in 1890, or 20.14 per cent.

In Lynn, Mass., from $470 in 1880 to $809 in 1890, or 29.87 per cent.

In Newark, N. J., from $458 in 1880 to $570 in 1890, or 20.14 per cent.

In Dayton, O., from $291 in 1880 to $407 in 1890, or 30.45 per cent.

In St. Paul, Minn., from $431 in 1880 to $565 in 1890, or 31.09 per cent.

In Chicago, from $436 in 1880 to $615 in 1890, or 29.08 per cent.

In Grand Rapids, Mich., from $324 in 1880 to $499 in 1890, or 36.07 per cent.

In Albany, N. Y., from $397 in 1880 to $545 in 1890, or 40.82 per cent.

In Milwaukee, Wis., from $393 in 1880 to $473 in 1890, or 41.74 per cent.

In Charleston, S. C., from $298 in 1880 to $331 in 1890, or 44.03 per cent.

In Cleveland, O., from $391 in 1880 to $549 in 1890, or 43.52 per cent.

In Boston, Mass., from $421 in 1880 to $514 in 1890, or 45.84 per cent.

In Omaha, Neb., from $436 in 1880 to $646 in 1890, or 48.48 per cent.

In Philadelphia, from $346 in 1880 to $529 in 1890, or 52.89 per cent.

In Denver, Colo., from $510 in 1880 to $790 in 1890, or 48.22 per cent.

In Kansas City, Mo., from $417 in 1880 to $440 in 1890, or 65.81 per cent.

In Atlanta, Ga., from $242 in 1880 to $420 in 1890, or 73.55 per cent.

These steady increases in wages were due solely to the fact that during that decade, as during the two that preceded it, the Republican policy of protection was adhered to. Security was given to capital. Therefore it gave employment to labor. Therefore the home industrial enterprises increased in number and productivity and wages went up.

As there are the unquestioned results of the Republican policy of protection, what shall be said of the intelligence of the beneficiaries of that policy if they vote next week to substitute for it a policy which has always cut down wages and closed factories? The Quincy Herald pretends to be indignant because the Democratic orators who are touring in Chicago whipsawed increase to order for a lot of Altgeld and who hurrahed for Cleveland as "them asses." What else are they? What fitter term can be used? They are intending to commit industrial suicide. They allow a strike for months if it refused a small addition to their wages. They are on the point, of their own free will, of voting in such a way that they will be left without any wages at all, and they will be unable to prevent it. They will have to take the low wages or starve. Those howling tenthdearers act as if they wanted the amount of money which they take home weekly to be cut down 50 per cent. That means suffering for wives and children. They are the ones who will feel most keenly the lessened ability of the head of the family to care for them. They will be the ones who will suffer most when there will have been food and of poorer quality. They will have to "come down in the world," with all that that implies."

Are not men who will bring voluntarily such sorrows on those whom it is their first duty to cherish deserving of a harsher name that even "them asses?"

Sick of Their Party.

[New York Mail and Express.]

Below are printed the names of some of the Democrats who have come out for the discipline of Democracy, who have become disgusted with the party whose platform advocates free trade, political banks and calamity howling; who are sensibly withdrawn from support of the Democratic platform and of Cleveland and Stevenson:

FREDERICK P. OLCOTT, president of the Central Trust Company of New York City.

GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS, famous constitutional lawyer, of Boston.

JAMES B. SCHIFF, prominent New York business merchant.

MASON MAYHS, formerly Democratic Governor of Texas.

FRANK BURDITT, recently nominated for Democratic secretary-at-large in Mississippi.

HAMTON L. CARPENTER of Pittsburgh, a cousin of Grover Cleveland.

JAMES BARR and ROBERT CHARTERS, leading lawyers of Cleveland, O., former members of the Cortland "Club."

"BUCK" POSSNER, once editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

JOHN MCDOWELL, a Democratic State committeeman in Tennessee.

JUDGE J. W. ESOURT, well-known attorney and prominent Democrat of Amsterdam, N. Y.

JUDGE ADAMS of New Haven, Ct., proprietor of the largest corset works in the country.

H. JARMON, recent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Mississippi District.

JUDGE JOHN W. HENNEY of Bottineau, N. D., for several years a member of the Democratic State Central Committee and chairman of the Democratic State Convention.

CHARLES H. ALLENWORTH, prominent Oswego lawyer and Democrat.

GEORGE W. CASE, well-known commercial lawyer of this city, formerly a leading member of Tammany Hall.

ANDREW J. MCILVAIN, lifelong Democrat and former member of the Jackson Democratic Club of Harlem.

JOSE J. DONAHUE of Keeney, N. H., formerly a member of the Democratic State Committee, a chairman of the Cheshire County Democratic Committee, president of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Cheshire county and member of the Granite State Club (Dem.)

BENJAMIN W. GREEN, manufacturer of patented goods at Germantown, Pa.

SAMUEL CONOVER, New York banker and formerly Democratic Park Commissioner and member of the Assembly from Westchester county.

JOHN KIRK, Democratic secretary of the Fifth Ward Democratic Club of the Ninth Ward in Brooklyn.

W. LANE N'NEAL, well-known New York lawyer, prominent in Democratic society and lifelong Democrat.

E. J. HAINS of Michigan, formerly a leading Democrat, member of the State Central Committee and delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

CHARLES P. HOWLAND, foreign freight agent of the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railway Company.

JOHN H. HERRON, lifelong Democrat and former member of the South One-Democrat Club and of the Jackson Club of Newark.

COL. JAMES BOYD of Morristown, Pa., a representative Pennsylvanian and distinguished Democrat of the old school.

J. H. CLARK, silk manufacturer, of Auguste, N. Y.

O. H. COSTAR, leading Democratic lawyer of Napa, Cal.

REV. WILLARD H. PECK of Cattaraugus county, N. Y., a prominent Democratic candidate for the Assembly.

LEON CHACE, prominent New York Democrat, former member of the County Democracy County Committee and of the Executive Committee of Twenty-four, and Democratic candidate for State Senator in the Ninth District last fall.

R. R. WARDS, president of the First National Bank of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Patrick Dwyer, for years an influential Democrat in the Second Assembly District in this city.

JOHN L. FARRAR, a noted lawyer and Democrat of forty years' standing in Peru, Ind.

GEORGE W. BERTS, of the paint firm of F. W. Devoe & Co., of New York.

GEN. R. O. HEARD of Elmyra, late Democratic candidate for Governor.

H. C. KOHLSAAT, prominent Democratic man of this city, and a Democrat for years.

PRESCOTT JARMINE of the Mississippi State Alliance, late Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Mississippi district.

DANIEL M. SOMMER, a tinware manufacturer of Brooklyn, ex-Park Commissioner and member of the Democratic General Committee.

EDWARD WARREN, a Little Falls manufacturer and lifelong Democrat.

Gov. PENNOYER, Chief Magistrate of Oregon.

FLORIAN GEORGIAN, manufacturer of Woodhaven, L. I., and lifelong Democrat.

COL. HENRY H. FURLEY, a New York city lawyer and an old Democratic fighter.

JAMES N. LETCHER, one of the largest glove manufacturers of Gloversville, N. Y.

JOHN MILLER, prominent furniture dealer of Brooklyn.

NEWSPAPERS, too.

Following are the names of newspapers and their editors who have grown weary of Democracy, or weary of Democracy, decade, as during the two that preceded it, the Republican policy of protection was adhered to. Security was given to capital. Therefore it gave employment to labor. Therefore the home industrial enterprises increased in number and productivity and wages went up.

As there are the unquestioned results of the Republican policy of protection, what shall be said of the intelligence of the beneficiaries of that policy if they vote next week to substitute for it a policy which has always cut down wages and closed factories? The Quincy Herald pretends to be indignant because the Democratic orators who are touring in Chicago whipsawed increase to order for a lot of Altgeld and who hurrahed for Cleveland as "them asses?" What else are they? What fitter term can be used? They are intending to commit industrial suicide. They allow a strike for months if it refused a small addition to their wages. They are on the point, of their own free will, of voting in such a way that they will be left without any wages at all, and they will be unable to prevent it. They will have to take the low wages or starve. Those howling tenthdearers act as if they wanted the amount of money which they take home weekly to be cut down 50 per cent. That means suffering for wives and children. They are the ones who will feel most keenly the lessened ability of the head of the family to care for them. They will be the ones who will suffer most when there will have been food and of poorer quality. They will have to "come down in the world," with all that that implies."

Are not men who will bring voluntarily such sorrows on those whom it is their first duty to cherish deserving of a harsher name that even "them asses?"

Sick of Their Party.

[New York Mail and Express.]

Below are printed the names of some of the Democrats who have come out for the discipline of Democracy, who have become disgusted with the party whose platform advocates free trade, political banks and calamity howling; who are sensibly withdrawn from support of the Democratic platform and of Cleveland and Stevenson:

FREDERICK P. OLCOTT, president of the Central Trust Company of New York City.

GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS, famous constitutional lawyer, of Boston.

JAMES B. SCHIFF, prominent New York business merchant.

MASON MAYHS, formerly Democratic Governor of Texas.

FRANK BURDITT, recently nominated for Democratic secretary-at-large in Mississippi.

HAMTON L. CARPENTER of Pittsburgh, a cousin of Grover Cleveland.

JAMES BARR and ROBERT CHARTERS, leading lawyers of Cleveland, O., former members of the Cortland "Club."

"BUCK" POSSNER, once editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

JOHN MCDOWELL, a Democratic State committeeman in Tennessee.

JUDGE J. W. ESOURT, well-known attorney and prominent Democrat of Amsterdam, N. Y.

JUDGE ADAMS of New Haven, Ct., proprietor of the largest corset works in the country.

H. JARMON, recent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Mississippi District.

JUDGE JOHN W. HENNEY of Bottineau, N. D., for several years a member of the Democratic State Central Committee and chairman of the Democratic State Convention.

CHARLES H. ALLENWORTH, prominent Oswego lawyer and Democrat.

GEORGE W. CASE, well-known commercial lawyer of this city, formerly a leading member of Tammany Hall.

ANDREW J. MCILVAIN, lifelong Democrat and former member of the Jackson Democratic Club of Harlem.

JOSE J. DONAHUE of Keeney, N. H., formerly a member of the Democratic State Committee, a chairman of the Cheshire County Democratic Committee, president of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Cheshire county and member of the Granite State Club (Dem.)

BENJAMIN W. GREEN, manufacturer of patented goods at Germantown, Pa.

SAMUEL CONOVER, New York banker and formerly Democratic Park Commissioner and member of the Assembly from Westchester county.

JOHN KIRK, Democratic secretary of the Fifth Ward Democratic Club of the Ninth Ward in Brooklyn.

W. LANE N'NEAL, well-known New York lawyer, prominent in Democratic society and lifelong Democrat.

E. J. HAINS of Michigan, formerly a leading Democrat, member of the State Central Committee and delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

CHARLES P. HOWLAND, foreign freight agent of the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railway Company.

JOHN H. HERRON, lifelong Democrat and former member of the South One-Democrat Club and of the Jackson Club of Newark.

COL. JAMES BOYD of Morristown, Pa., a representative Pennsylvanian and distinguished Democrat of the old school.

J. H. CLARK, silk manufacturer, of Auguste, N. Y.

O. H. COSTAR, leading Democratic lawyer of Napa, Cal.

REV. WILLARD H. PECK of Cattaraugus county, N. Y., a prominent Democratic candidate for the Assembly.

LEON CHACE, prominent New York Democrat, former member of the County Democracy County Committee and of the Executive Committee of Twenty-four, and Democratic candidate for State Senator in the Ninth District last fall.

R. R. WARDS, president of the First National Bank of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Patrick Dwyer, for years an influential Democrat in the Second Assembly District in this city.

JOHN L. FARRAR, a noted lawyer and Democrat of forty years' standing in Peru, Ind.

GEORGE W. BERTS, of the paint firm of F. W. Devoe & Co., of New York.

GEN. R. O. HEARD of Elmyra, late Democratic candidate for Governor.

H. C. KOHLSAAT, prominent Democratic man of this city, and a Democrat for years.

PRESCOTT JARMINE of the Mississippi State Alliance, late Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Mississippi district.

DANIEL M. SOMMER, a tinware manufacturer of Brooklyn, ex-Park Commissioner and member of the Democratic General Committee.

GEORGE WARREN, a Little Falls manufacturer and lifelong Democrat.

Gov. PENNOYER, Chief Magistrate of Oregon.

FLORIAN GEORGIAN, manufacturer of Woodhaven, L. I., and lifelong Democrat.

COL. HENRY H. FURLEY, a New York city lawyer and an old Democratic fighter.

JAMES N. LETCHER, one of the largest glove manufacturers of Gloversville, N. Y.

JOHN MILLER, prominent furniture dealer of Brooklyn.

NEWSPAPERS, too.

Following are the names of newspapers and their editors who have grown weary of Democracy, or weary of Democracy, decade, as during the two that preceded it, the Republican policy of protection was adhered to. Security was given to capital. Therefore it gave employment to labor. Therefore the home industrial enterprises increased in number and productivity and wages went up.

As there are the unquestioned results of the Republican policy of protection, what shall be said of the intelligence of the beneficiaries of that policy if they vote next week to substitute for it a policy which has always cut down wages and closed factories? The Quincy Herald pretends to be indignant because the Democratic orators who are touring in Chicago whipsawed increase to order for a lot of Altgeld and who hurrahed for Cleveland as "them asses?" What else are they? What fitter term can be used? They are intending to commit industrial suicide. They allow a strike for months if it refused a small addition to their wages. They are on the point, of their own free will, of voting in such a way that they will be left without any wages at all, and they will be unable to prevent it. They will have to take the low wages or starve. Those howling tenthdearers act as if they wanted the amount of money which they take home weekly to be cut down 50 per cent. That means suffering for wives and children. They are the ones who will feel most keenly the lessened ability of the head of the family to care for them. They will be the ones who will suffer most when there will have been food and of poorer quality. They will have to "come down in the world," with all that that implies."

Are not men who will bring voluntarily such sorrows on those whom it is their first duty to cherish deserving of a harsher name that even "them asses?"

Sick of Their Party.

[New York Mail and Express.]

Below are printed the names of some of the Democrats who have come out for the discipline of Democracy, who have become disgusted with the party whose platform advocates free trade, political banks and calamity howling; who are sensibly withdrawn from support of the Democratic platform and of Cleveland and Stevenson:

FREDERICK P. OLCOTT, president of the Central Trust Company of New York City.

GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS, famous constitutional lawyer, of Boston.

JAMES B. SCHIFF, prominent New York business merchant.

MASON MAYHS, formerly Democratic Governor of Texas.

FRANK BURDITT, recently nominated for Democratic secretary-at-large in Mississippi.

HAMTON L. CARPENTER of Pittsburgh, a cousin of Grover Cleveland.

JAMES BARR and ROBERT CHARTERS, leading lawyers of Cleveland, O., former members of the Cortland "Club."

"BUCK" POSSNER, once editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

JOHN MCDOWELL, a Democratic State committeeman in Tennessee.

JUDGE J. W. ESOURT, well-known attorney and prominent Democrat of Amsterdam, N. Y.

JUDGE ADAMS of New Haven, Ct., proprietor of the largest corset works in the country.

H. JARMON, recent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Mississippi District.

JUDGE JOHN W. HENNEY of Bottineau, N. D., for several years a member of the Democratic State Central Committee and chairman of the Democratic State Convention.

CHARLES H. ALLENWORTH, prominent Oswego lawyer and Democrat.

GEORGE W. CASE, well-known commercial lawyer of this city, formerly a leading member of Tammany Hall.

ANDREW J. MCILVAIN, lifelong Democrat and former member of the Jackson Democratic Club of Harlem.

JOSE J. DONAHUE of Keeney, N. H., formerly a member of the Democratic State Committee, a chairman of the Cheshire County Democratic Committee, president of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Cheshire county and member of the Granite State Club (Dem.)

BENJAMIN W. GREEN, manufacturer of patented goods at Germantown, Pa.

SAMUEL CONOVER, New York banker and formerly Democratic Park Commissioner and member of the Assembly from Westchester county.

JOHN KIRK, Democratic secretary of the Fifth Ward Democratic Club of the Ninth Ward in Brooklyn.

W. LANE N'NEAL, well-known New York lawyer, prominent in Democratic society and lifelong Democrat.

E. J. HAINS of Michigan, formerly a leading Democrat, member of the State Central Committee and delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

CHARLES P. HOWLAND, foreign freight agent of the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railway Company.

JOHN H. HERRON, lifelong Democrat and former member of the South One-Democrat Club and of the Jackson Club of Newark.

COL. JAMES BOYD of Morristown, Pa., a representative Pennsylvanian and distinguished Democrat of the old school.

J. H. CLARK, silk manufacturer, of Auguste, N. Y.

O. H. COSTAR, leading Democratic lawyer of Napa, Cal.

REV. WILLARD H. PECK of Cattaraugus county, N. Y., a prominent Democratic candidate for the Assembly.

LEON CHACE, prominent New York Democrat, former member of the County Democracy County Committee and of the Executive Committee of Twenty-four, and Democratic candidate for State Senator in the Ninth District last fall.

R. R. WARDS, president of the First National Bank of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Patrick Dwyer, for years an influential Democrat in the Second Assembly District in this city.

JOHN L. FARRAR, a noted lawyer and Democrat of forty years' standing in Peru, Ind.

GEORGE W. BERTS, of the paint firm of F. W. Devoe & Co., of New York.

GEN. R. O. HEARD of Elmyra, late Democratic candidate for Governor.

H. C. KOHLSAAT, prominent Democratic man of this city, and a Democrat for years.

PRESCOTT JARMINE of the Mississippi State Alliance, late Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth Mississippi district.

DANIEL M. SOMMER, a tinware manufacturer of Brooklyn, ex-Park Commissioner and member of the Democratic General Committee.

GEORGE WARREN, a Little Falls manufacturer and lifelong Democrat.

Gov. PENNOYER, Chief Magistrate of Oregon.

FLORIAN GEORGIAN, manufacturer of Woodhaven, L. I., and lifelong Democrat.

COL. HENRY H. FURLEY, a New York city lawyer and an old Democratic fighter.

JAMES N. LETCHER, one of the largest glove manufacturers of Gloversville, N. Y.

JOHN MILLER, prominent furniture dealer of Brooklyn.

NEWSPAPERS, too.

Following are the names of newspapers and their editors who have grown weary of Democracy, or weary of Democracy, decade, as during the two that preceded it, the Republican policy of protection was adhered to. Security was given to capital. Therefore it gave employment to labor. Therefore the home industrial enterprises increased in number and productivity and wages went up.

As there are the unquestioned results of the Republican policy of protection, what shall be said of the intelligence of the beneficiaries of that policy if they vote next week to substitute for it a policy which has always cut down wages and closed factories? The Quincy Herald pretends to be indignant because the Democratic orators who are touring in Chicago whipsawed increase to order for a lot of Altgeld and who hurrahed for Cleveland as "them asses?" What else are they? What fitter term can be used? They are intending to commit industrial suicide.