Plaintiff's ex parte regarding a violation of court order by Defendant San Diego Unified School District.

Upon the Court's inquiry, this matter is not being reported as no court reporter have been provided by any parties.

The Court hears oral argument from all parties present.

Court informs counsel of the Court's position to sign the proposed judgment. The Court is inclined to sign the judgment and to not provide an order of stay. Court informs counsel for Defendant, San Diego Unified School District, they have the right to seek relief from the Court of Appeals once the judgment has been signed and filed.

Attorney Mark Bresee, counsel for defendant, requests the Court for a hold on signing the judgment so that counsel may file an objection to the proposed judgment.

The Court finds this request untimely. However, having good cause found, the Court will allow defendant's counsel to file an objection due by noon of 01/06/2022 for judicial review. The Court will make their decision on proposed judgment following review of objections.
