Shake Shack sets up second O.C. spot

An old IHOP was razed in Costa Mesa to make way for the location, where a ribbon-cutting was held Thursday.

BY SUSAN HOFFMAN

In the words of Costa Mesa Mayor John Stephens, "Nothing brings the city together like hamburgers and shakes."

Stephens, his City Council colleagues, district representatives, Shake Shack team members and other distinguished guests participated Thursday morning in a ribbon-cutting ceremony in honor of the grand opening of the second Shake Shack in Orange County and 47th in California. The first O.C. location is at Irvine Spectrum.

Newport Beach resident Sam Pierce and Salma Aranda of Lake Forest were at the front of a growing line of around 30 hungry customers as the new eatery prepared to take their orders.

"The foundation of the burger is built off Shake Shack," Pierce said. Aranda chimed in with, "I just love their burgers."

Shake Shack is known for its American classic menu including made-to-order Angus beef burgers, "hand spun" milkshakes and Shack-made lemonade. Their motto is "Stand For Something Good."

LONGTIME CUSTOMER Vince Smith shares a memory with store manager Kim Denger at the Balboa Pharmacy on Thursday. The store will celebrate its 100th birthday on the Balboa Peninsula in Newport Beach on Thursday, May 16.

Balboa Pharmacy is set to celebrate its centennial

BY LILLY NGUYEN

Not many things on the Balboa Peninsula have stayed the same over the past century.

Businesses have come and gone over the years. What is now known as the Balboa Pavilion used to be a place to go bowling and, prior to that, a place to dance. Streets in the earliest days were largely accessible to people on foot.

But one establishment has become a community fixture: Balboa Pharmacy is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year.

"It's gone through quite a bit," said Kim Denger, who manages the retail store at the pharmacy. "There was a time early on when there used to be soda fountains, and they served some food at the counter along the Main Street windows. The rail tracks used to

Ready to Crumbl: F.V. gets new cookie shop

Kevin Nguyen cheerfully promised a box of a dozen cookies to a neighboring business on Wednesday afternoon.

The Huntington Beach resident is the owner of the new Crumbl Cookies location in Fountain Valley, and he was preparing for its highly anticipated grand opening event on Friday.

It would appear that the shop at 18900 Brookhurst St. is set up for success. The adjacent businesses almost seem complementary, including a pizza parlor next door. Come for the pizza party, stay for dessert.

There is also a dentist in the same parking lot, so perhaps diligent tooth cleaners will look to reward themselves for going months without new cavities.

Nguyen, 37, who grew up in Garden Grove and graduated from Santiago High in 2006, said he always had a sweet tooth for all desserts, from ice cream to cookies, from boba to shaved ice. As an Orange County native, he never felt starved for appetizing eats.

"I've always been a big foodie kind of person, and Orange County is pretty much the hub with ... a variety of food," Nguyen said. "You can go down the street for some good Vietnamese food, or you can drive 10 minutes away for some good Mexican food, and then you come back

University again proves too tough for Corona del Mar in CIF final

BY MATT SZABO

REDLANDS — Patience was the word of the day Friday.

The Corona del Mar and University high school boys' tennis teams had to wait for courts to become available for the CIF Southern Section Open Division title match at the University of Redlands.

The match finally started at about 4:30 p.m., nearly two hours behind schedule. CdM's wait has felt like much longer than that.

University reigned again, earning an 11-7 victory in the waning light to capture their third straight Open Division title.

Each time, the Trojans have beaten the Sea Kings in the title match.

"They're a very, very good team in every position," CdM coach Jamie Gresh said. "It's not the result we wanted. It's a tough pill to swallow, but it's not for lack of effort or concentration. We just came up short."

Corona del Mar has been searching for its first CIF Southern Section title since 2003. In that time, University has won 11 CIF championships, five of those against CdM and always in the top division.

USC-bound senior Niels Hoffmann swept at No. 1 singles for the Sea Kings in Friday's match, but no one else could.

The Trojans, meanwhile, earned a doubles sweep from senior captains SangHyuk Im

Actor convicted of marketing fake COVID-19 cure

BY CITY NEWS SERVICE

A Huntington Beach part-time actor was convicted Friday of federal wire fraud charges for convincing victims to invest in companies that marketed what turned out to be bogus cures and treatments for COVID-19 during the early days of the pandemic. Keith Lawrence Middlebrook, 56, was convicted of 11 counts of wire fraud. He faces up to 20 years in federal prison on each count when he is sentenced Sept. 9. He remains free on $150,000 bond.

According to prosecutors, Middlebrook solicited investments in March 2020 from people in California, Nevada, New York, Texas and Colorado through various social media channels that touted an alleged "patent-pending" cure and a treatment for COVID-19 that he claimed to have developed. His alleged cure was dubbed

"QC20" and the treatment was "QP20."

He would guarantee investors "enormous returns," and even claimed that Laker great Earvin "Magic" Johnson was a director at his company, according to the U.S. Attorney's Office. He also told investors that a person in Dubai was offering to buy his company for $10 billion, guaranteeing victims that they would get their money back, prosecutors said.

Middlebrook was arrested in March 2020 after he delivered pills that were purported to be his treatment preventing COVID infection to an undercover FBI agent posing as an investor.

According to his page on IMDb, Middlebrook had minor roles in films including "Moneyball" and "Iron Man 2."

run right through the village on a boulevard ... and over the decades, we've experienced the technology age. The pharmacy needed to adjust to the [advance of the] computer in the 1990s and, in 2021, we went from the old-timey cash register to a [point-of-sales] system, which is kind of exciting."

According to "A History of Newport Beach," compiled by Henry Lancey Sherman and published by the city in 1931, Walter Eastlack established Balboa Pharmacy at 716 E. Balboa Blvd. in June 1924.

According to the book, Eastlack's lease for the first pharmacy he operated would run for another year, and in 1924, there were at least two drugstores in Balboa. Eastlack would later discontinue his first location, leaving only the second in operation. Balboa Pharmacy was sold in 1928 to Mickey Walker and Alfonse Hamann.

Walker and Hamann would later establish the Balboa Inn on the corner of Main Street and set up a second pharmacy called the Breakers Pharmacy, which is no longer in existence.

In 2007, Mike Martin was celebrating 25 years of his ownership of Balboa Pharmacy. A former employee of the local drugstore before he bought a similar business in the late 1970s, Martin stepped back into the Balboa operation when a new owner was being sought in 1982.

Denger said she was brought into the fold about 12 years ago and has been collaborating with Martin on compiling the drugstore's history. According to Denger, Martin renovated its iconic neon sign in 2007, though a storm later took it out, necessitating a replacement.

The COVID-19 pandemic arrived in early 2020 just as the venerable drugstore changed hands from Martin to the Ford family. Like many businesses during that rocky period of mandated face masks and business closures, Balboa Pharmacy faced an uncertain future.

"I, for one, wasn't sure if it was going to make it," said Denger.

But it did, and the new owners not only updated the store's technology but brought on a new pharmacist, Susanne Light, who Denger believes has substantially grown the pharmacy's customer base. Denger said they serve tourists as well as locals, some of whom have come to the pharmacy for as long as 60 years.

Denger considers the summer season her favorite time of year at the store.

"It's hard to describe our customers. They are from all over the world. They are families, travelers, kids and the residents that live all around us have their essential needs that we try to meet every day," Denger said. "The really fun part about the place is we're at the beach. People are on vacation so often or the kids on their summer breaks — so many of our customers during the summer are the little junior guards, and they are so much fun and we have so much respect for what they're doing and [are thankful to] the Newport Beach lifeguards in general for making that possible."

Denger noted the centennial celebration is not just about the drugstore's history.

"It's about our customers who have been loyal and found a safe haven to get the medications they needed during the pandemic [and beyond]," she said.

Light, in a news release issued at the beginning of the month stated, "We are immensely proud to reach this momentous milestone. Balboa Pharmacy's journey reflects not just a century of healthcare, but a century of building relationships and contributing to the overall well-being of our community."

Balboa Pharmacy will be holding a centennial celebration on Thursday, May 16 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. featuring refreshments, photo opportunities, historical displays, memorabilia and an hourly raffle of goods donated by a number of the pharmacy's vendors. Prize drawings will start at 1 p.m. Denger said the store will also be holding a monthly raffle throughout the rest of the year for customers.

and get some good American food."

When the opportunity to partner with Crumbl came up, Nguyen jumped at the opportunity to own a franchise. In particular, he said a rotation of available menu items had kept his interest.

"The great thing about Crumbl is that they've always had a variety of cookies," Nguyen said. "I would never be bored of just one flavor. Every week, they rotate their cookies, and being a dessert kind of person, it caught my eyes."

He added that he was always waiting for Sunday to see the new flavors of the week.

A select number of cookie enthusiasts got the first bite of the Mom's Recipe, chocolate cake and pink velvet cake offerings at a sneak peek event on Wednesday.

Among the attendees for the preview were a handful of social media influencers, spreading word of the shop's opening to the foodie network at large.

Channel Ellorin, one of the content creators, said the foodie community is "very supportive." She also said foodies help market eateries that struggle to reach potential customers with shortening attention spans.

"I'm very particular about my cookies," Ellorin, a Long Beach resident, said after her initial taste test. "It has to have a crispy edge, soft and chewy center. ... They had that variety, whether it was a chocolate chip cookie, or the other one was more of a cakey type of cookie. ... I like that they do have the variety of both types of cookies to cater to what people would want."

Foodies, ultimately, are sharing their passion, a principle that guided Nguyen in his decision to open a cookie shop.

"You have to love what you do for you to keep going," Nguyen said. "If you don't believe in what you do, then you're just going to get bored. ... Everybody has a passion, and I'm a big believer in finding that passion and just continuing to strive for it."

The new cookie shop treated visitors to free milk chocolate chip cookies on Friday for attending the grand opening, which featured a DJ, a balloon artist and face painting.

Business hours for the location will be from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. on weekdays. The store will remain open until 11 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays, and it will be closed on Sundays.

Hutchins Consort marks silver anniversary at Newport Beach soiree

Hutchins Consort, a unique violin chamber ensemble, recently celebrated its 25th anniversary with a Sunday fundraising soiree at the Newport Beach Country Club.

Margaret Gates, anniversary chair, welcomed a handsome gathering of music advocates for an evening concert billed as "Oh, the Places We've Been!" The performance traced the history and legacy of the ensemble of professional musicians who perform on an octet of acoustically matched violins.

The local musicians in the Hutchins Consort, led by artistic director Joe McNalley, have, over 25 years, toured in 14 states and three foreign countries. They've collaborated extensively with fellow artists, primarily in Japan and Russia.

The evening in Newport Beach honored Hutchins Consort founding chair Sharon McNalley, mother of the artistic director, whose passion and leadership for the music has been both inspirational and transformational for many citizens supporting the legacy.

Paying tribute to the contributions of Sharon McNalley, the crowd offered a rousing standing ovation. Chair Gates joined the guests in honoring the memory of dedicated Hutchins Consort extended family supporters Dr. John Applegate, Betty Andrews and the lovely late Dr. Armine Meghrouni.

Attending the celebration were Dan and Cassie Hutchins Coon, in from New Hampshire for the 25th anniversary event. Cassie Hutchins Coon is the daughter of Carleen Hutchins, creator and crafter of the acoustically matched violins that are used by the consort. Carleen Hutchins' violins are placed in museums such as the Metropolitan Museum in New York City, as well as in museums in Stockholm, Edinburgh and South Dakota.

Over the years the Southern California-based consort has also performed in such notable venues as the Vatican's Aula Magna Pontifical. Their educational outreach efforts have enriched schools and colleges nationwide, in addition to libraries, senior centers and specific underserved communities including Native American reservations. Introduced to the gala consort crowd on this night in Newport Beach was the consort's new composer in residence, Andrés Martin, a contrabassist hailing from Argentina who currently resides in Mexico.

An elegant candlelit spring dinner followed the performance catered by the highly regarded culinary team led by Chef Graeme Blair at Newport Beach Country Club preparing and serving a three-course dinner featuring a main entrée of filet mignon and salmon. Tables in the

CITY OF NEWPORT BEACH NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Thursday, May 23, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. or soon thereafter as the matter shall be heard, a public hearing will be conducted in the Council Chambers at 100 Civic Center Drive, Newport Beach. The Planning Commission of the City of Newport Beach will consider the following application:

Fletcher Jones Airport Shuttle and Parking Facility – A request for a conditional use permit to relocate the existing Fletcher Jones Motorcars Preferred Owners Airport Shuttle Facility from its current location at 2172, 2192, and 2222 South Bristol Street to a new site at 20071 Birch Street. If approved, the new site will be developed with an approximately 1,134 square-foot, single-story, reception office and surface parking for 83 cars. Accessory improvements include security fencing and perimeter walls, site lighting, hardscaping, and landscaping. No late hours are proposed. The request is one phase of a larger future effort by Fletcher Jones Motorcars to redevelop 2172, 2192, and 2222 South Bristol Street and the adjoining property at 20052 Birch Street into an automotive inventory facility with accessory parking. With approval of this application, the conditional use permit for application PA2022-128 would be rescinded.

The phase of the project currently being considered is categorically exempt under Section 15303 under Class 3 (New Construction or Conversion of Small Structures). To avoid the potential piecemealing of projects (i.e., the dividing of a project into two or more pieces and evaluating each piece in a separate environmental document), both this phase and the future automotive inventory facility with accessory parking have been evaluated together as a single project for the potential to have a significant effect on the environment. The project is exempt under Section 15332 under Class 32 (In-Fill Development Projects) of the State CEQA (California Environmental Quality Act) Guidelines.

All interested parties may appear and present testimony regarding this application. If you challenge this project in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you raised at the public hearing or in written correspondence delivered to the City, at, or prior to, the public hearing. Administrative procedures for appeals are provided in the Newport Beach Municipal Code Chapter 20.64 (Appeals). The application may be continued to a specific future meeting date, and if such an action occurs, additional public notice of the continuance will not be provided.

The agenda, staff report, and corresponding documents will be available by end of business day on the Friday preceding the public hearing and may be reviewed at the Community Development Department Permit Center (Bay C-1st Floor), at 100 Civic Center Drive, Newport Beach, CA 92660 or at the City of Newport Beach website at www.newportbeachca.gov/planningcommission. Individuals not able to attend the meeting may contact the Planning Division or access the City's website after the meeting to review the action on this application. All mail or written communications (including email) from the public, residents, or applicants regarding an agenda item must be submitted by 5:00 p.m. on the business day immediately prior to the meeting. This allows time for the Planning Commission to adequately consider the submitted correspondence.

For questions regarding this public hearing item please contact Joselyn Perez, Associate Planner, at 949-644-3312 or jperez@newportbeachca.gov, at 100 Civic Center Drive, Newport Beach, CA 92660.

Huntington Beach ousted in rematch with Murrieta Mesa

BY ANDREW TURNER

Huntington Beach saw its season come to an end in the quarterfinals again, once more against the same team it faced this time last year.

The game went off script for Huntington Beach right from the start, Murrieta Mesa pushing two runs across in the first and second innings. It would be all the Rams needed on a day the Oilers' bats fell silent.

Murrieta Mesa's Lilly Hauser had a dozen strikeouts in a one-hit shutout, as Huntington Beach fell 12-0 at home in its quarterfinals exit from the CIF Southern Section Division 1 playoffs.

Hauser also drove in five runs on the afternoon. She had a two-out, two-run single in the second inning to double the Rams' advantage to 4-0. Hauser added a three-run homer that settled on top of the batting cage over the right-center field fence in the seventh.

"That felt really good," Hauser said of her home run. "I've been off for a while. At the beginning of the year, I was hot. This year, ending, I wasn't great. ... I'm not good at hitting inside [pitches] usually, so it felt really great to turn on it."

Southwestern League champion Murrieta Mesa (25-3) will host top-seeded Orange Lutheran (20-3) in its return to the semifinals on Saturday.

Third baseman Paige Bambarger, an Oregon State commit, also hit a towering home run that landed on the solar panel sunshade in the parking lot beyond left field in the first inning.

"With our lineup, we never count us out," Murrieta Mesa coach Tony Romero said. "We've got the hitters, and we've got the experience. We've been here before. We know how to play from behind, we know how to play from ahead, we know how to play just tough, tough games, and with [Hauser] pitching, we're going to be in every game."

The sole opportunity for Huntington Beach to get back in the game came in the fifth inning. After Zariaha Billinger was hit by a pitch, Preslee Brower and Cali Bennett worked walks to load the bases. Hauser put out the fire by retiring pinch hitter Willow Kellen, striking out the side for the second time in the contest.

"I love bases loaded," Hauser said of navigating her toughest inning. "It's my favorite thing because I like stress situations. It makes me focus in and get it done."

Huntington Beach (18-8) finished in second place in the Sunset League this season, as Los Alamitos (20-6) ran the table to win the league championship. "I just think it just was one of those games where we didn't get any breaks early, and then it just got away at the end," Huntington Beach coach Jeff Forsberg said.

Zoe Prystajko threw five innings, allowing four runs (two earned) on three hits. It marked the end of an era for the Oilers, who have experienced ample success with the Stanford-bound left-hander in the circle for the past three seasons.

Prystajko also provided the lone hit for Huntington Beach, a single to left in the sixth inning.

"I've been here 20 years, and there's certain kids that have no room for error when they play," Forsberg said. "They have to be perfect all the time because everybody expects them to do it all the time. I think she's one of them."
