Code of Conduct for U-T Events

The San Diego Union-Tribune events are a great way to unite our communities. We provide a series of unique and innovative events that include community festivals, business-to-business events, and editorial forums.

Our goal is to provide an experience where everyone feels welcome to participate and engage in conversation. All participants, including speakers, sponsors, and exhibitors, must agree to the following code of conduct to achieve that goal.

EXPECTED BEHAVIORS

1. We welcome all participants to equitably and effectively participate and express an opinion or perspective on the topic at hand.
2. Please be polite, considerate, and respectful in your expressions.
3. During any virtual events or related events, no participant should engage in harassment in any form.
4. Refrain from offensive comments (verbal, written, or otherwise).
5. We do not tolerate harassment in any form.
6. During presentations, be respectful of the content and presenter and do not interrupt the program.

SAFETY MEASURES

1. Please look out for your fellow participants. Alert event organizers if you notice a dangerous situation or someone in distress.
2. If someone makes you or anyone else feel unsafe or unwelcome, please report your concern immediately to an event organizer or security personnel.
3. Be respectful of everyone’s boundaries and space.

THE CONSEQUENCES

If any participant is violating the expected behaviors or engaging in unacceptable behavior during the event, the event organizer or staff reserve the right to ask the attendee to leave the event. If necessary, security personnel or law enforcement will be contacted to assist.
