Re: New Committee Assignments

Dear Ms. Wolcott:

In my capacity as Council President, I am making new committee assignments as specified in the list below. These assignments are subject to the Council's approval of a resolution that I will introduce next week pursuant to Charter Section 242(b) to establish the committees and their respective jurisdictions.

I anticipate that some of the existing committee names will be changed, as follows:

- Immigrant Affairs, Civil Rights, and Equity will become Civil Rights, Equity, Aging, and Disability
- Economic Development and Jobs will become Economic and Community Development
- Energy, Climate Change, Environmental Justice, and River will become Energy and Environment
- Information, Technology, and General Services will become Government Operations
- Arts, Parks, Health, Education and Neighborhoods will become Neighborhoods and Community Enrichment
- Personnel, Audits, and Animal Welfare will become Personnel, Audits, and Hiring
- Homelessness and Poverty Committee and Housing Committee will be consolidated and become Housing and Homelessness
- Additionally, I am discontinuing the Ad Hoc Committee on COVID-19 Recovery and Neighborhood Investments
